

Douglas County Democratic Central Committee

BYLAWS

1. Organization

- 1.01 Name - The name of this organization shall be the Douglas County Democratic Central Committee hereinafter referred to as the DCDCC.
- 1.02 Duties - The general supervision, regulation and direction of the affairs of the Democratic Party in Douglas County shall be vested in the DCDCC. The DCDCC shall undertake all things necessary for the performance and exercise of the duties imposed and powers conferred by the County Convention, the NSDP and the State of Nevada.
- 1.03 Right of Participation - A person's right to participate or vote as a Delegate to a County or State Convention or as a Member of a County or State Central Committee may not be conditioned upon the payment of money (e.g. dues), except that a reasonable fee may be charged to attend a County or State Convention. (NRS 293.161)
- 1.04 Records - All records of the DCDCC, including fiscal, policy and plans shall be available to all Central Committee persons at all reasonable times excepting any records deemed to be "sensitive" in nature by a 2/3rds vote of the entire Executive Committee. The Executive Committee may place such restrictions as they deem appropriate on "sensitive" records.
- 1.05 Dissolution - Upon the dissolution or liquidation of the DCDCC, any funds or other assets remaining shall be transferred to a local political action committee (PAC) whose objectives are consistent with the Objectives of the DCDCC. If no local PAC is agreeable to a majority of the DCDCC, any remaining funds or assets shall be transferred to the NSDP.

2. Mission Statement

The Mission of the DCDCC is the advancement of the Democratic Party (See Exhibit 1 - Democratic Party Credo), its ideals, principles and candidates. The DCDCC shall:

- Promote the philosophy of the Democratic Party
- Promote the County, State and National Democratic Platforms
- Support elected Democratic officials
- Recruit and support the election of Democratic candidates
- Educate the community regarding the Party's principles
- Generate action on legislation of importance to Democrats
- Address local and area issues
- Involve Douglas County Democrats in the political activities of the Party.

3. Objectives

- Achieve a Democratic Party voting majority in Douglas County
- Register every possible Democratic voter
- Persuade every possible registered voter to support and vote Democratic thereby electing Democrats to all local, state and federal offices
- Recruit Democratic candidates for all possible elections and appointments
- Represent Douglas County's Democrats and keep them informed as to the goals, issues and activities of the:
 - DCDCC
 - Rural Nevada Democratic Caucus (RNDC)
 - Nevada State Democratic Party (NSDP) and its Central Committee
 - Democratic Legislative Caucus of Nevada
 - Democratic Congressional Campaign Committee (DCCC)
 - Democratic Senatorial Campaign Committee (DSCC)
 - Democratic National Committee (DNC)
- Ensure that elections in Douglas County are legal, fair, open and accurate; with special attention to the ease of voting, the accuracy and verifiability of election results/equipment, the openness to all electors, parties and candidates, and other elements necessary for a free and fair electoral process
- Ensure DCDCC efforts and events receive timely, accurate media coverage which maximizes the visibly

- and positive image of the organization
- Generally fulfill the political needs of Douglas County Democrats
- Possess the organizational and financial strengths necessary to achieve these Objectives.

4. Members and Central Committeepersons

- 4.01 DCDCC Members - All Democrats residing and registered to vote in Douglas County are Members of the DCDCC and are eligible for election as Central Committeepersons of the DCDCC and/or Central Committeepersons of the NSDP Central Committee.
- 4.02 County Convention Delegates and Central Committeepersons - County Convention Delegates are elected at the County Caucuses. Central Committeepersons are elected by the County Convention Delegates at the County Convention. Each Douglas County precinct may be represented by one (1) County Convention Delegate and one (1) Central Committeeperson for each fifty (50) registered Democratic residing in the precinct, or major fraction thereof. Every precinct is entitled to elect at least one (1) County Convention Delegate and at least one (1) Central Committeeperson. (NRS 293.133)
- 4.03 Registered Voter Information - The county clerk shall determine the number of registered voters of each party in each precinct as of January 1 of each year in which a convention is held (even-numbered years), and shall notify the DCDCC of those numbers within 30 days. (NRS 293.133)
- 4.04 Terms - Central Committeepersons shall serve for 2 years or until their successors have been elected at the next County Convention. This service shall include but not be limited to attending monthly DCDCC meetings as elected precinct representatives, participation on its committees and assisting in the conduct of its business.
- 4.05 Approval or Election – Unless otherwise set forth in these Bylaws, DCDCC approval or election shall be by a majority of the Central Committeepersons present and voting at a duly convened DCDCC meeting; or by a majority of ALL Central Committeepersons when using the US mail or email or a telephone survey. For those instances not addressed in these Bylaws, the vote threshold and other qualifications constituting DCDCC approval or election shall be as described in Robert's Rules of Order.
- 4.06 U.S. Mail Addresses - Central Committeepersons are required to keep the DCDCC advised of their current mailing address. If correspondence mailed to a Central Committeeperson is returned by the U.S. Post Office, no further mail, including meeting notices, will be sent to that Central Committeeperson until their address is corrected or the problem resolved.
- 4.07 E-mail Addresses Encouraged - Central Committeepersons are encouraged to have DCDCC correspondence sent to them via their email address. If the email is returned or otherwise rejected, the DCDCC is not obligated to re-send or mail the correspondence to assure receipt/delivery.
- 4.08 Resignations – The resignation of a Central Committeeperson shall become effective immediately upon witnessed oral or written notice given to the Chair.
- 4.09 Vacating A Central Committeeperson Position - Any Central Committeeperson not attending two (2) consecutive DCDCC meetings shall be considered to have vacated his/her position, unless legitimate prior notification of non-attendance has been made to the Chair or the Chair's designee. Central Committeepersons so terminated may be re-elected by the DCDCC.
- 4.10 Filling Vacancies - If a Central Committeeperson's position is vacated or if he/she is removed or if any position on the DCDCC remains unfilled at the County Convention, the position must be filled by a "qualified elector" who is a registered Democrat residing in that precinct. The DCDCC shall elect the new Central Committeeperson to fill the vacancy. Central Committeepersons so elected may serve until DCDCC elections are held at the next County Convention.
- 4.11 "Qualified Elector" - Article 2 of the Nevada Constitution defines a "qualified elector" as a citizen of the U.S. of the age of eighteen or upwards who "shall have actually, and not constructively, resided in the state six months, and in the district or county thirty days next preceding any election" providing their voting rights have not been lost (exceptions are set forth for government service, military service and other special circumstances).

BYLAWS

- 4.12 Removal for Cause - Any of the following reasons may constitute good and sufficient cause for removal of the DCDCC Officers and Central Committeepersons although Removal for Cause is not limited to the following:
- Failure to carry out duties as prescribed by these Bylaws, such as:
 - Establishing a duly elected Executive Committee and conducting regular meetings
 - Appointing the Committees needed to properly proper conduct DCDCC business
 - Filing required reports in a timely and appropriate manner
 - Endorsing or demonstrating official DCDCC aid or support for one Democratic candidate over another in a primary election
 - Failure to declare support for the Democratic general election candidates
 - Change in party affiliation
 - Change in residency from the precinct elected to represent
 - Actively aiding or supporting opposition party candidates
 - Malfeasance or gross negligence.

Removal for Cause shall be by two-thirds vote of the DCDCC. The person in question must be given at least ten (10) days written notice that such action is being considered and must be given the opportunity to be heard prior to the DCDCC's vote on the matter. All matters relating to discipline and/or removal for cause must be discussed in Executive Session. (Refer to Robert's Rules of Order – Disciplinary Procedures)

- 4.13 Changes to DCDCC Composition - After the County Convention, the composition of the DCDCC may be changed from time-to-time to reflect changes in the organization of precincts and in the number of registered voters in the precincts; however, the same basis must be used as was used by the Precincts to elect Delegates to the County Convention (1 for every 50 registered Democrats, or major fraction thereof). (NRS 293.143)

- 4.14 Honorary Membership - The DCDCC may bestow upon any Democrat of good standing an Honorary Membership. An Honorary Member must be approved by the DCDCC. Honorary Members do not have voting rights.

5. Election of Officers

- 5.01 Election of Officers – The DCDCC may elect from its Central Committeepersons an Executive Committee and shall choose its Officers by ballot. (NRS 293.160) Elections to choose Officers shall be held at a regular DCDCC meeting during in the first quarter of each odd-numbered year.
- 5.02 Officer Terms - The Officers so elected serve 2-year terms or until their successors are elected. There is a two-term limit (four years total). An officer is eligible for reelection to the same office after someone else has served in that office. Any officer may serve in any other office without sitting out a term. Should there be no new candidates for a specific office position at the time of election, the two-term limit may be set aside for that specific office for that specific election. The Officers assume their offices immediately upon the announcement of the election results and shall serve as provided in these Bylaws. (NRS 293.160)
- 5.03 Officer Duties – The DCDCC and its Officers have general charge of the affairs of the Democratic Party in Douglas County. (NRS 293.160) At the end of his/her term of office, an Officer shall turn over to his/her successor all formal DCDCC records and correspondence.
- 5.04 Officer Positions – The DCDCC Officers shall be Chair, Vice Chair, Treasurer, Secretary and two (2) Members-At-Large. The two (2) Member-At-Large positions may be used to assure diversity among the Officers in areas such as: race, gender, age, professional/institutional experience, regional representation or political priorities.
- 5.05 Nominations of Officers - Nominations of Officers shall generally be as prescribed in Robert's Rules of Order - Nominations by a Committee. A Nominating Committee of from three (3) to five (5) Central Committeepersons shall be elected by the DCDCC at least a month prior to the planned election. The Nominating Committee shall elect its own Chair from the Committee's members. The Nominating Committee shall make a best effort to contact all Central Committeepersons in a consistent manner to recruit nominees. The perspective nominee's demonstrated leadership, prior participation of DCDCC efforts/activities and regular attendance at meetings shall be a considered by the Nominating Committee in determining their recommended Slate of Officer Nominees. The Chair and the Vice Chair are not ex-officio Members of the Nominating Committee.

- 5.06 Nominating Committee Report and Nominations From The Floor - The Chair of the Nominating Committee shall make the committee's report. The Nominating Committee is automatically discharged after its report has been formally presented to the DCDCC. The Chair then calls for further nominations "from the floor" as prescribed in Robert's Rules of Order. Only a Central Committeeperson in good standing may make a nomination and the nominee must have given permission prior to being nominated. After nominations from the floor for all offices have been called for and closed by the Chair, voting by ballot may take place.
- 5.07 Election by Ballot – Officers shall be elected by ballot by the DCDCC. The Chair, or his/her designee, shall conduct the election of Officers in accordance with Robert's Rules of Order: Ballot Elections – Procedure 1. The election should take place early in the meeting to allow time for additional balloting if any candidate fails to receive a vote sufficient for election. When there are more than two (2) candidates for one (1) office and no one receives a majority on the first ballot, the two candidates receiving the most votes shall remain on the second ballot and all others shall be dropped.
- 5.08 Appointment of Tellers - The Chair shall appoint at least two (2) Tellers to distribute, collect, and count the ballots; and to report the vote in accordance with Robert's Rules of Order - Balloting Procedures. The Tellers shall appoint a Teller as a spokesperson to report to the DCDCC.
- 5.09 Ballot Distribution and Collection - Each voting Central Committeeperson shall sign a roster of the current Central Committeepersons in good standing before receiving their ballot. In collecting the ballots, it is the Tellers' responsibility to see that no Central Committeeperson votes more than once and that only those in good standing are allowed to cast a ballot. Each ballot is to be given to a Teller who, without viewing the ballot, shall determine by weight and feel that it is a single ballot, only then should the ballot be placed in the ballot box by the Teller.
- 5.10 Tellers' Report - The Tellers then count the votes and prepare the Tellers' Report (A detailed description can be found in Robert's Rules of Order). When the Tellers' Reports are completed for all offices, the reporting Teller, after reading the reports to the DCDCC, submits them to the Chair, who again reads each one of them declaring the result for that office. The Tellers' Report is entered in full in the Minutes becoming part of the official meeting record.
- 5.11 Disposal of Ballots - After completion of an election, if there is no possibility that the DCDCC may order a recount (which requires a majority vote of the Central Committeepersons who voted) the ballots can be ordered destroyed or saved for a certain length of time (e.g., one month) with the Secretary before being destroyed as set forth in Robert's Rules of Order.
- 5.12 Officer Vacancies - If a vacancy occurs among the Officers, the vacancy shall be filled by a special election. The new Officer must be elected (by ballot) by the DCDCC at a regular meeting.
- 6. Executive Committee
- 6.01 Voting Members - All DCDCC Officers and the Standing Committee Chairs shall be Voting Members of the DCDCC Executive Committee (See subsection 9.10 - Restrictions on the Voting Rights of the Chair).
- 6.02 Non-Voting Members - Special Committee Chairs may be Non-Voting Members of the Executive Committee. The Parliamentarian shall serve as a Non-Voting Member of the Executive Committee unless the Parliamentarian has been duly elected to a voting position.
- 6.03 Quorum Requirements - The presence of a majority of the Voting Members of the Executive Committee shall constitute a quorum. A quorum may transact all DCDCC Executive Committee business.
- 6.04 Meeting Schedule - The Executive Committee will normally meet monthly. Executive Committee meetings shall be open to all Central Committeepersons, except when conducted in Executive Session (See subsection 6.08).

Douglas County Democratic Central Committee

BYLAWS

- 6.05 Special or Called Meetings - The Executive Committee shall meet on the call of the Chair or the call of two of its Members with at least 24 hours written or oral notice to each Member.
- 6.06 Powers and Duties - Between regular monthly DCDCC meetings, the Executive Committee may exercise all of the powers of the DCDCC in the management and direction of its business in such manner as they deem is in its best interest. An Executive Committee report shall be given at each DCDCC regular monthly meeting (in accordance with Robert's Rule of Order - Report of Executive Committee) and all business transacted by the Executive Committee must then be approved by the DCDCC.
- 6.07 Approval, Election or Endorsement – Unless otherwise set forth in these Bylaws, Executive Committee or election shall be by a majority of the Executive Committee Voting Members present and voting at a duly convened Executive Committee meeting; or the election/approval of a majority of ALL Executive Committee Voting Members when using the US mail or email or a telephone survey. For those instances not addressed in these Bylaws, the vote threshold and any other qualifications constituting Executive Committee approval or election shall be as described in Robert's Rule of Order.
- 6.08 Executive Committee Minutes - The Executive Committee shall keep Minutes which are to be distributed to Central Committee persons at the next regular meeting of the DCDCC. It is the Secretary's responsibility to produce and maintain these Minutes. In accordance with Roberts Rules of Order, when in Executive Session the Secretary shall be instructed on whether Minutes are to be taken.
- 6.09 Executive Sessions - Executive Sessions of the Executive Committee shall only be used for specific proceedings that must be kept secret from the DCDCC. A motion to go into Executive Session shall require a two-thirds (2/3rds) vote of the Executive Committee Members present and voting. Matters relating to discipline must be discussed in Executive Session.
- 6.10 Vacating Executive Committee Positions - Any Member of the Executive Committee not attending two (2) consecutive Executive Committee meetings shall be considered to have vacated their position, unless legitimate prior notification of non-attendance is made to the Chair or his/her designee. Executive Committee Members so vacating their positions may be re-elected by the DCDCC.

7. Officer Responsibilities

The primary responsibility of all duly elected Officers is to facilitate the work of the DCDCC in fulfilling the duties and responsibilities as set forth in Article I.

7.01 Duties of the Chair - The Chair shall:

- Review Bylaws and recommend revisions, develop administrative policy and formulate administrative procedures
- Perform other administrative duties as may be required.

9. County Central Committee Meetings

9.01 Regular meetings - The DCDCC shall meet monthly. A notice of meetings and locations shall be given to all Central Committee persons by advanced written, oral or published notice on a monthly basis. The notice will include the Agenda for the scheduled meeting and the prior meeting's unapproved Minutes and should be disseminated at least two (2) days prior to the scheduled meeting. DCDCC meetings shall be open to all Members, except when conducted in Executive Session in accordance with Roberts Rules of Order.

9.02 Special Meetings – Special Meetings may be called by the Chair, or by a majority of the Members of the Executive Committee, or by request of fifteen (15) percent (in writing) of the Central Committee persons. A special meeting (or called meeting) is a separate session of the DCDCC held at a time different from that of any regular meeting, and convened only to consider one or more items of business specified in the call of the meeting. Notices of special meetings are subject to the same location, written notice, time, and Agenda requirements as regular meetings.

9.03 Public Programs or Events – Certain DCDCC Programs or Events may be open to the general public. A Non-Member or a Member who is not in good standing is not necessarily entitled to be heard as a matter of right.

9.04 Location - Regular, Special or Called meeting shall normally be held within the County of Douglas unless the DCDCC votes to hold a particular meeting elsewhere.

Douglas County Democratic Central Committee

BYLAWS

- 9.05 Quorum - For the purpose of conducting DCDCC business, a quorum of the DCDCC shall be equal to twenty (20) percent of those duly elected Central Committeepersons in good standing. No business shall be transacted in the name of the DCDCC unless a quorum is present. There shall be no proxy voting.
- 9.06 Meeting Sign-in - All Central Committeepersons shall sign the attendance record for each meeting they attend.
- 9.07 Meeting Minutes shall be kept as an official record of every duly convened DCDCC meeting. Unapproved Minutes shall be distributed to all Central Committeepersons within ten (10) days after the meeting date. In an Executive Session, the Secretary shall be instructed by the presiding Officer on whether Minutes are to be taken and, if taken, any special handling or distribution instructions that apply. (It is the responsibility of those Central Committeepersons unable to receive the Minutes via email to contact the Secretary to make arrangement to receive the Minutes.)
- 9.08 Precinct Reports - Regular DCDCC meetings shall provide limited meeting time for brief reports from Central Committeepersons and Members (a three minute time limit is suggested) during this time general information, issues, needs, etc. may be brought to the attention of the DCDCC.
- 9.09 Consent Agenda - To minimize meeting duration, the DCDCC may use a Consent Agenda for the approval of prior meeting Minutes, Treasurer's Report and Committee Reports. The objective of using a Consent Agenda is to minimize the number of motions and votes required for routine action items. Any Central Committeeperson may remove a Consent Agenda item to the regular Agenda. When used, the Consent Agenda shall be sent to all Central Committeepersons two (2) days prior to a regular meeting. Supporting information needed by Central Committeepersons to make informed decisions on the matters in the Consent Agenda shall be included.
- 9.10 Chair's Voting Restrictions - The Chair shall only vote at DCDCC meetings or Executive Committee meetings when his/her vote will affect the results (e.g. to break a tie) or when the election is by ballot. (Per Robert's Rules of Order)
- 9.11 Impartiality Required of the Chair - Impartiality is required of the Chair (or any presiding Officer) as set forth in Robert's Rules of Order which states:
- "The impartiality required of the Chair precludes the Chair from exercising debate rights while presiding. On rare occasions, to participate in debate, she/he shall turn the Chair over to the Vice Chair or other qualified member who is perceived as non-partisan on the pending matter. The Presiding Officer who relinquishes the Chair then shall not return to it until the pending main question has been disposed of."*

10. County Caucuses

- 10.01 County Caucuses - Promptly at the time and place(s) appointed by the DCDCC, the mass meeting(s) must be convened and organized for each precinct. The meeting(s) must be conducted openly and publicly and in such a manner that it is freely accessible to any registered Democrat who resides in the precinct and is desirous of attending. These Precinct Meetings shall be held on or before the fifth (5th) day preceding the County Convention date set by the NSDP Central Committee in each general election (even-numbered) year. (NRS 293.135 & 137)
- 10.02 Caucus Location - The meeting must be held in one of the following places in the following order of preference (1) any public building within the precinct if the meeting is for a single precinct, or any public building which is in reasonable proximity to the precincts and will accommodate a meeting of two or more precincts; or (2) any private building within the precinct or one of the precincts. (NRS 293.135)
- 10.03 Caucus Notice - The DCDCC shall give Notice of the meeting (See Exhibit 2) by:
- Posting a Notice in a conspicuous place outside the building where the meeting is to be held at least five (5) days before the date of the meeting; and
 - Publishing a Notice at least five (5) days before the date of the meeting in one or more newspapers of general circulation in the precinct, and published in the county, if any are so published. (NRS 293.135)
- 10.04 Election of Caucus Chairs and Secretaries - Each County Caucus shall be organized as follows:
- The DCDCC shall designate a Preliminary Credentials Committee to examine the credentials of all persons claiming to be registered Democrats residing in specific precincts within Douglas County and wishing to participate in the Caucus. All such persons whose credentials are not in dispute must be admitted.

- The Democrats so seated shall elect a Caucus Chair and a Caucus Secretary. The Caucus Chair shall appoint a Caucus Credentials Committee to examine and report on all cases of disputed credentials.
- When all such disputes have been settled, the Caucus shall complete its organization, adopt its Agenda and conduct its business.

10.05 Caucus Business - To conduct its business the County Caucus shall:

- Organize
- Elect County Convention Delegates
- Elect Precinct Captains, if desired
- Solicit input for the County Platform, if desired
- Take such other action pertaining to the affairs of the Democratic Party in their precincts, as they deem proper.

10.06 Election of Precinct Delegates to the County Convention - The number of County Convention Delegates (as well as their Alternates) to which the precinct is entitled (See subsection 4.02) must be elected by ballot. The result of the election must be certified to the County Convention by the Caucus Chair and the Caucus Secretary upon the certificate forms as specified in the following subsection. (NRS 293.137)

10.07 Certificates Given to Elected Delegates (See Exhibits 3 and 4) - The DCDCC shall prepare and number serially those certificate forms equal to the total number of Delegates to be elected throughout the county, and deliver the appropriate number to each precinct meeting. Each certificate must be in duplicate. The original must be given to the elected Delegate, and the duplicate delivered to the Chair of the Preliminary Credentials Committee of the County Convention. Every Delegate who presents a certificate matching one of the duplicates must be seated without dispute. (NRS 293.137)

10.08 Procedure if Precinct Fails to Elect Delegates - If a Precinct Meeting is not held for a particular precinct that precinct must be without representation at the County Convention unless the meeting was scheduled, with proper notice, and no registered voter of the party appeared. In that case, the meeting shall be deemed to have been held and the position of Delegate is vacant. If a position of Delegate is vacant, it must be filled by the designated Alternate, if any. If there is no designated Alternate, the DCDCC shall appoint a Delegate from among the qualified Members of the party residing in the precinct in which the vacancy occurred, and the Secretary shall certify the appointed Delegate to the County Convention. (NRS 293.137)

10.09 Adoption of NSDP Procedural Rules – The written rules of the NSDP Central Committee shall be adopted not less than ninety-five (95) days before the County Convention or by January 1 (of the calendar year of the national convention), whichever is earlier. These rules shall govern, but not be limited to, the following:

- Selection, rights and duties of committees of a convention;
- Challenges to credentials of Delegates
- Majority and minority reports of committees. (NRS 293.137)

11. County & State Conventions

11.01 County Convention - Promptly at the time and date set by the NSDP Central Committee and at a place appointed by the DCDCC, the County Convention must be convened and organized.

11.02 County Convention Notice - The DCDCC shall cause Notice (see Exhibit 5) of the holding of the County Convention of the Democratic Party to be published in one or more local newspapers. (NRS 293.130)

11.03 “Organizing” the Convention - The County Convention shall be organized as follows:

- The DCDCC shall, before the date of the County Convention, designate a Preliminary Credentials Committee to examine the credentials of all persons claiming to be Delegates. All such persons whose credentials are not in dispute must be seated as Delegates.
- The Delegates so seated shall elect a Chair, a Secretary and a Credentials Committee (to examine and report on all cases of disputed credentials).
- When all such disputes have been settled, the Convention shall complete its organization, adopt its

Agenda and conduct its business. (NRS 293.140)

- 11.04 Convention Business – To conduct the County Convention business, the County Convention Delegates shall:
- Organize
 - Elect the allowed number of State Convention Delegates and Alternates
 - Elect Central Committeepersons for the ensuing term
 - Adopt a County Platform, if desired
 - Take such other actions pertaining to the affairs of the Democratic Party in Douglas County as they deem proper. (NRS 293.140)
- 11.05 Number of Delegates to State Convention - The number of Delegates to the State Convention shall be one (1) Delegate for each one hundred fifty (150) registered Democrats residing in Douglas County, or major fraction thereof. The Chair and the Secretary of each County Convention shall certify to the State Convention the result of the election by the County Convention of State Convention Delegates and Alternates. (NRS 293.140 & 145)
- 11.06 State Convention - The Delegates and Alternates elected to the State Convention shall convene on the time and dates and at the location set by the NSDP Central Committees. The Delegates shall there organize, adopt a State Party Platform, elect the NSDP Central Committee for the ensuing term, and take such other actions pertaining to the affairs of the Democratic Party in Nevada as they deem proper.. (NRS 293.150)
- 11.07 Rules of County and State Conventions - Except as otherwise prescribed in NRS Chapter 293, the State and County Conventions may each adopt its own rules, and each is the judge of the election of its own Delegates and Alternates. (NRS 293.155)
- 11.08 Delegate Must Be Qualified Elector - No person may act as a Delegate at any convention unless he/she is a “duly qualified elector” (See subsection 4.10) of the county or precinct which he/she seeks to represent. (NRS 293.155)
- 11.09 Unit Rule of Voting Prohibited – It is prohibited to adopt or apply of the so-called “Unit Rule of Voting”, whereby the votes of all Delegates from any precinct or precincts, or county or counties, are required to be cast in the manner determined by the majority of Delegates from that precinct or precincts, county or counties, and against the protest of a minority of the Delegates. (NRS 293.155)
- 12. NSDP Central Committee
- 12.01 NSDP Members and Central Committeepersons - All Democrats registered and residing in Nevada are Members of the NSDP Central Committee and as such may attend NSDP Central Committee meetings. The Democrats in Douglas County are entitled to voting representation on the NSDP Central Committee on the basis of one (1) Central Committeeperson for every one thousand (1,000) registered Democrats residing in Douglas County as of January 1st of even-numbered years, or major fraction thereof.
- 12.02 Election - The Central Committeepersons of the NSDP Central Committee are elected at the State Convention by the State Convention Delegates from those State Convention Delegates in attendance.
- 12.03 Terms of Office - The NSDP Central Committeepersons take office at the State Convention to serve for approximately two (2) years until their successors are elected and confirmed at the next State Convention.
- 12.04 Duties – The NSDP Central Committeepersons shall be the official Douglas County representatives on the NSDP Central Committee; shall serve on State Committees; and shall carry out their duties in accordance with the Charter and Bylaws of the NSDP Central Committee. The Duties of the NSDP Central Committeepersons are to attend and fully participate in NSDP Central Committee quarterly meetings in Tonopah and any State Conventions representing the Democrats of Douglas County. The NSDP Central Committeepersons are expected to be willing and able to personally pay for travel and lodging expenses associated with their duties. One (1) of the NSDP Central Committeeperson in attendance shall be designated by the DCDCC Chair to report to the DCDCC on the business transacted at the Quarterly NSDP meetings and the State Convention(s).
- 12.05 Proxy Voting – Proxy Voting at NSDP Central Committee meetings shall be permitted only when the holder of the proxy is from the County of the Member executing the proxy. No Central Committeeperson shall vote more than two (2) proxies and Member shall vote more than one (1) proxy. Proxies shall be in written form and signed by the Central Committeeperson or designee granting the proxy.

Douglas County Democratic Central Committee

BYLAWS

Proxy voting shall not be permitted in the following cases:

- Amendments to, or revisions of the Bylaws of the Democratic Party of Nevada
- Any other matter where the use of proxies is prohibited by the National Charter, the State Charter, the National Party Rules, or the Delegate Selection Rules.

12.06 Position Vacated by Non-Attendance - Any NSDP Central Committeeperson not attending two (2) consecutive meetings shall be considered to have vacated his/her position, unless legitimate prior notification of non-attendance is made to the NSDP and proxy approval is arranged. In the event that a regular meeting is scheduled to be held in the North or the South, as opposed to the usual meeting location of Tonopah, hardship shall constitute an automatic legal absence for any NSDP Central Committeeperson living in the opposite end of the state from which the meeting is being held.

12.07 Vacancies – To fill the vacancy of a NSDP Central Committeeperson representing Douglas County, the DCDCC shall elect a nominee. The nominee may be a DCDCC Member or a Central Committeeperson. The DCDCC Chair shall notify the NSDP Chair (or his/her designee) of the vacancy and of the nominee. The election to fill the vacancy then should occur at the next regular meeting of the NSDP Central Committee.

13. Rural Nevada Democratic Caucus (RNDC)

When the RNDC Rural District 3's At-Large Representative is not from Douglas County, the DCDCC may choose to elect by majority vote one or more DCDCC Members to attend and report on meetings and activities of the RNDC. The duties of the Members so elected are to attend and participate in RNDC meetings and activities. Since RNDC meetings are held at various rural Nevada locations, the Members so elected are expected to be willing and able to personally pay for travel and lodging expenses associated with their duties.

14. Financial Considerations

14.01 Fiscal and Calendar Year - The fiscal and operational year of DCDCC shall be January 1st through December 31st.

14.02 DCDCC Checking Account - The DCDCC must establish a General Fund checking account with a bank located in Douglas County.

14.03 Ancillary DCDCC Bank Accounts - From time to time it may be desirable to establish additional checking or savings accounts for specific purposes. These ancillary accounts may be established by the Treasurer with the prior approval of the DCDCC or in an emergency situation with the prior authorization of a majority the Executive Committee and subsequent approval by the DCDCC.

14.04 Authorized Signatures on Checks and Other Withdrawals - Withdrawals by check or withdrawal slips from any DCDCC bank account must be signed by two (2) of the following elected DCDCC Officers: Chair, Vice Chair, Treasurer or Secretary. One of the authorizing signatures on any check or withdrawal must be either the Chair or the Vice Chair.

14.05 Political Contributions - The DCDCC may only make political contributions to candidate and issue campaigns that it has officially endorsed as set forth in these Bylaws and as sanctioned by the NSDP.

15. Endorsements

15.01 Endorsement of Democratic Party Primary Candidates – The DCDCC may endorse a Democratic Party primary candidate only when he/she is running unopposed and only after the filing window for candidacy has been closed.

15.02 Endorsement of Non-Democratic Party Candidates - A non-Democratic Party candidate may only be endorsed when no Democratic Party candidate is running and then only by a 2/3rds vote of the DCDCC.

BYLAWS

15.03 Endorsement of Issues – Recall initiatives, referendum petitions or recall candidates may be endorsed only by a 2/3rds vote of the DCDCC.

16. Affiliated Organizations

16.01 Douglas County Democratic Charter - Any Douglas County organization, club, publication or entity using the name “Democrat” or “Democratic” implying a relationship with the Democratic Party shall be subordinate to, and affiliated with the DCDCC. Such organizations and clubs are encouraged to obtain written consent and recognition of their affiliation from the DCDCC (See Exhibit 4 – Democratic Charter); such consent may not be unreasonably withheld. If the name “Democrat” or “Democratic” is used without such consent, the DCDCC may publicize such fact.

16.02 Nationally-Chartered Democratic Organizations - Some nationally-chartered Democratic Organizations operating in Douglas County may exist as independent organizations functioning under the auspices of the charter granted them by other Democratic Party organizations (e.g., The Young Democrats of America, The College Democrats of America, National Federation of Democratic Women, and the DNC Black Caucus).

16.03 Event Coordination Required - No Democratic club or organization may raise money without first coordinating the date for any fundraising event with the DCDCC if the event is taking place in Douglas County, NV. The DCDCC shall coordinate all Democratic fundraising efforts and create and maintain a master calendar of Democratic events.

16.04 Candidate Endorsements - No Democratic club or organization that has been chartered by the DCDCC may endorse a Democratic candidate over any other Democratic candidate in any primary election or in an election where multiple candidates in the same race are Democrats.

16.05 “Official” Rejection - The DCDCC may officially reject (and publicize such rejection of) any individual, group, organization, or any other entity, claiming to represent Democrats or the Democratic Party, for the purpose of supporting candidates not affiliated with the National, State or County Democratic Parties.

16.06 Not Restricting Public Discourse - Nothing in these Bylaws shall prevent any affiliated Democratic club or organization from informing the electorate or disseminating information on any philosophical issues if the views represented do not conflict with the adopted County, State and National Democratic Platforms, and providing concurrent notice is given that, the views expressed represent the views of that organization not the views of the Democratic Party.

17. General

17.01 Statements of Policy - The DCDCC Chair may issue statements representing the approved policy of the DCDCC as long as these statements are not in conflict with the already stated position(s) of the Democratic Party. No Central Committeeperson or other DCDCC Officer shall issue statements purporting to represent the policy of the DCDCC without the approval of the Chair or without the approval of the DCDCC.

17.02 Parliamentary Authority - Robert’s Rules of Order (most current edition) shall be the DCDCC’s authority for parliamentary law and procedure at all DCDCC meetings except provisions in conflict with these Bylaws or the Democratic Party Charter or Nevada Law.

17.03 Applicable Law - No Officer, Central Committeeperson, Member or agent of the DCDCC is authorized to take any action in violation of any federal or state election law in the conduct of DCDCC business or activities.

17.04 Reservation of Rights - The DCDCC reserves all rights to manage its internal affairs as stated by the United States Supreme Court in 489 U.S. 214, 109 S.Ct.1013 (1989). This ruling insures that the state cannot impose rules or restrictions that would violate our first (1st) and fourteenth (14th) amendment rights under the Constitution by placing restrictions on the organization and composition of DCDCC or by imposing term limits on its Officers or banning its endorsements. DCDCC is free to do these things, but the state may not force it to do so.

17.05 Amendment of Bylaws - These Bylaws may be amended or repealed by a 2/3rds vote of the DCDCC provided they have been distributed in full to Central Committeepersons either before or at the previous duly convened regular DCDCC meeting.

17.06 County Convention - These Bylaws may be amended, altered or repealed at any Douglas County Democratic Convention by two-thirds (2/3) vote of the County Convention Delegates present and voting.

17.07 Adoption of Bylaws - These Bylaws shall be considered in effect and adopted when approved by a majority of the DCDCC provided they have been distributed in full to Central Committee persons either before or at the previous duly convened regular DCDCC meeting.

Adopted: July 6, 2006 by the unanimous vote of a quorum of the elected members of DCDCC at the regular monthly meeting.
